

How to Find BMI for Adults using Look-Up Tables

BMI is the preferred indicator of thinness used to classify malnutrition in adults 18 years and over who are not pregnant or within 6 months postpartum.

1. Find the client's height in the left-hand column (y axis).
2. Find the client's weight in the bottom row (x axis).
3. The BMI is the point where the two lines meet.

